

NEVADA'S NEW ADMINISTRATION.

Inauguration of Governor Adams and Lieutenant Governor Laughton—Installation of the New State Officers, and Organization of the Legislature.

Nevada's new set of officials commenced their labors on Monday. At 11:30 A. M. Governor-elect Adams and Lieutenant Governor-elect Laughton, accompanied by Chief Justice Hawley, of the Supreme Court, repaired to Governor Kinkadee's office to be sworn in. The room was crowded by friends of the new officers. Chief Justice Hawley administered the oath and affixed his signature to their commissions, after which he greeted Governor Adams and wished him the utmost success in the discharge of his duties. Governor Kinkadee then stepped forward, with the Seal of State in his hand, and, after complimenting "Old Broadhorns," expressed himself in as happy a manner toward his successor, wishing Governor Adams the best of luck. The new Governor answered as follows:

Gov. KINKADEE:—I accept from you the Great Seal of the State of Nevada, the symbol of the authority of the State. Its impression imparts verity to the instrument that bears it. I am resolved that care, caution and consideration for the best interest of the people of the State shall control my action requiring its use, and I indulge the hope that I may be as fortunate in this as you have been. And when I, in turn, shall resign this emblem of authority I shall do so with the same assurance that you now feel of having always used this Seal in the interest of the people of this State.

After these pleasing ceremonies were through with Governor Adams proceeded to the Senate Chamber to introduce President Laughton.

STATE OFFICERS.
Judge Leonard, Controller Hallock and Clerk Bicknell continued on in the even tenor of their way. Attorney General Davenport, Secretary Dornier, Treasurer Tuffy, Surveyor General Presbie, Prof. Young and State Printer Harlow quietly took possession of their offices.

THE LEGISLATURE.
At 12 M. Gov. Jewett Adams called the Senate to order, and before introducing his successor, returned his thanks for the many kindnesses he had received. He then introduced Lieutenant Governor Laughton, as President of the Senate. President Laughton said: SENATORS:—The hour having arrived for the commencement of the Eleventh Session of the Legislature of the State of Nevada, the Senate will please come to order.

It is customary, gentlemen, for the Lieutenant Governor to say a few words on taking his seat as presiding officer of this honorable body. The Constitution has imposed upon him the delicate duty of presiding over your deliberations. If I am fortunate enough to possess any special qualifications essential to its proper discharge, I have yet to discover what they are. I can, however, at least assure you that I shall bring to its performance a high appreciation of the importance of this trust, with a sincere desire to be diligent and faithful in its execution. With such convictions of duty, and not as a partisan, I come to this chair to administer your rules, appealing to you only for that generous support by which alone a presiding officer can be sustained, and pledging you in return an inflexible impartiality, to be shown by my conduct. I am sure that kindly forbearance and courtesy will govern our official intercourse and deliberations, and with this belief expressed the chair begs leave to announce that it is prepared to entertain any motion, and to act in accordance with the pleasure of the Senate.

J. R. Kittrell was appointed temporary Secretary, and Cash Thomas, temporary Sergeant-at-Arms.

The roll of hold-over Senators was called and all responded except L. T. Fox, of Storey.

The newly-elected Senators' credentials were presented.

A committee of Senators Brumsey and Westerfield was appointed to wait upon the Chief Justice and request him to administer the oath of office. In response to the invitation Chief Justice Hawley appeared and administered the oath, after which the roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Brumsey, Kaiser, Dangberg, Dennis, Folley, McConnell, Smyth, Henderson, Westerfield, Williams, Henderson, Parker, Brumsey, Taylor, Schooling, Marker, Rockhill, McConnell, Gallagher, Hobart.

On motion of Westerfield the Senate proceeded to the election of officers, with the following result:

President pro tem, J. A. Brumsey; Secretary, J. R. Kittrell; Assistant Secretary, John Brady; Sergeant-at-Arms, Cash Thomas; Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, E. McSorley; Minute Clerk, J. B. Gallagher; Journal Clerk, M. R. Elstner; Committee Clerks, H. C. Sirset and Warren Noteware; Messenger, Wm. Relofson; Pages, Sharon Winsten and Allie Kelly; Porter, Richard Elliott.

On motion of Brumsey the Chief Justice was invited to administer the oath of office to the officers and attaches. The Chief Justice administered the oath.

Senator Dennis offered a resolution that the President appoint a committee of three to inform the Governor that the Senate is organized and ready to receive communications.

Senator Williams offered a resolution that the Secretary inform the Assembly that the Senate is ready for business. On motion of Westerfield the standing rules of the 10th session, except rules 19 and 20, were adopted for temporary purposes.

COMMITTEES.
A resolution was offered and adopted constituting the standing committees as follows:

Elections—Tolley, Westerfield, Marker.

Corporations—Williams, Brumsey, Taylor.

Printing—Dennis, Henderson, Parker.

Ways and Means—Schooling, Hobart, Fox, Williams, Taylor.

Claims, State Affairs, Supplies and Expenditures—McConnell, Hobart, Smyth.

Rules and Joint Rules—Brumsey, Westerfield, Hammond.

The committee on Rules and Joint Rules submitted a report out of order. The report was adopted and 120 copies ordered printed.

ASSEMBLY.

The Assembly was called to order by Secretary of State Jasper Babcock.

After the roll was called by Robert E. Lowery, Clerk of the last House, the oath of office was administered to the members by Chief Justice Hawley.

Mr. Brown, of Ormsby, nominated Charles S. Varian, of Washoe, for Speaker, and he was elected by acclamation. On taking his seat he spoke as follows:

GENTLEMEN OF THE ASSEMBLY:—In accepting the trust confided in me by your generous action, I do so with a full realization of the magnitude of my undertaking. One should bring to the discharge of the arduous and delicate duties of the chair a ripened and impartial judgment, aided by quickened perceptions and a thorough knowledge of parliamentary law. Conscious of my own deficiencies in these respects, I shall be my endeavor, with your aid, to preside over your deliberations with candor and impartiality. In this endeavor I feel sure you will give me your cordial and sympathetic support. Thanking you for the high honor you have conferred upon me I assume the duties of Speaker.

The following permanent organization was then effected:

O. H. Grey, Speaker pro tem.

R. L. Thomas, Chief Clerk.

J. W. Ballard, Assistant Chief Clerk.

C. H. Stoddard, Sergeant-at-Arms.

W. L. Reese, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms.

W. A. Harris, Minute Clerk.

J. Kullman, Journal Clerk.

H. T. Tucker, Committee Clerk.

James L. Honeyman, Committee Clerk.

Ben Edson, Committee Clerk.

Sam Wagner, Porter.

L. Currier, Messenger.

A. Pechner and A. Ash, Pages.

The committee appointed to wait on the Governor reported that his Excellency had nothing to communicate.

The following Committee on Mileage was appointed: McBurney, Rieppe and Crownshield.

An Act to create a Legislative Fund of $65,000 was introduced by Mr. Wells, of Esmeralda, and passed.

The Legislature—Second Day.

In the Senate yesterday a resolution was adopted to invite the clergy of Carson to officiate as Chaplains. Assembly Bill, No. 1, "To Create a Legislative Fund," was amended, on motion of Hobart, by striking out $65,000 and inserting $55,000, and passed.

A message was received from the Governor announcing the appointment of Geo. W. Merrill as his Private Secretary.

Dennis, of Elko, introduced a resolution recommending provision for voting by the people at the next general election on changing the State Constitution.

Brumsey, of Storey, by leave, introduced a bill, out of order, entitled "An Act to Regulate the Conduct of Primary Elections."

Westerfield, of Lyon, introduced a bill, entitled "An Act to Amend an Act Regulating Salaries of County Officers."

Brumsey, of Storey, introduced bill No. 3, entitled "An Act to Authorize Fees and Salaries of Officers and Others Taken in Attachments, and to Prohibit Assignments to Defraud Creditors."

In the Assembly the Speaker announced the following Committees:

Printing—Fox, Maraden and Dale.

Enrollment—Hill, Morris and Muldoon.

Engrossment—Price, Dooley and Howell.

Election—Johnson, Pike, Melarkey, Pratt and Morris.

Judiciary—Wells, Hardin, Pratt, Gray, Hires, Helm and Bell.

The Committee on Mileage reported the members entitled to the following amounts for mileage:

Wells	253 00
Williams	15 50
Varian	15 50

Fish introduced a resolution, which was adopted, that a committee of three be appointed to ascertain what rooms were needed outside of the Capitol Building.

Quite a running debate was indulged in over a resolution to dispense with the services of a Chaplain. Mr. Gray, of White Pine, opposed the resolution and spoke in behalf of the Chaplains on the ground that the lawmakers owed it to their own dignity and self respect to employ a Chaplain. Wells and Brown called for the ayes and noes. Bell, of Nye, favored the resolution, holding that it was adding hypocrisy to other crimes. Tate, of Storey, spoke against the resolution. Dovey, of Lyon, spoke against the resolution, also Perkins, of Storey. Brown, of Ormsby, had no doubt but that Bell's opposition to the Chaplain spoke for his Democratic constituents. He hoped for the benefit of the Democrats the resolution would not pass. Franklin, who introduced the resolution, hoped to see the money go to the Orphans' fund. Pike, of Churchill, thought that from the looks of the last election return the Republicans needed the most praying for. He was from a cow county and his constituents needed prayer. Much depended upon the religious progress of the age. Crownshield, of Lyon, held, that if only cost $200 he wanted prayers. All voted against the resolution except Bell, Dale, Franklin, Galland and Rieppe. Subsequently a resolution was passed inviting the clergy of Carson to officiate.

A resolution, by Wells, for a special committee to visit the State Prison and report its condition and government, was opposed by Grey, of White Pine; Brown, of Ormsby; Gray, of Storey, and defeated.

Wells gave notice that he would at an early day introduce a bill relating to Mining Records and a bill to provide for State Revenue.

By reference to the message of Governor Neil, of Idaho, it will be seen that there is a surplus revenue in the Treasury of the Territory of $60,000.

The great success of business men is doing as much of their own work as possible. This is proven in every town and city, at least in the town of Carson.—Tribune.
